Admission and Service Areas

Applications accepted: October 1 – November 30

- We are NOT IMPACTED at the campus level!

- Nursing
  - Students are first admitted to CSUEB as Pre-Nursing
  - Transfers must apply to the Nursing B.S. major by November 30
  - Freshmen must apply to the Nursing B.S. major before reaching Junior Level status

  www.csueastbay.edu/nursing

- Business - No longer impacted; all students admissible to CSUEB will be admitted directly to the Business Major for Fall 2016.

- Music: Students are conditionally admitted to the Music BA major pending the results of an audition with the Department of Music.

www.csueastbay.edu/admission
Freshmen only accepted for Fall quarter and must meet minimum requirements:

- Be a High School graduate or complete GED
- Qualifiable Eligibility Index
- Meet “a-g” Requirements

www.csueastbay.edu/admission
Incoming freshmen who have not demonstrated proficiency in English and/or Math will be required to participate in the Early Start Program (ESP) in the summer before Fall classes begin. Students may complete ESP at CSUEB or other CSUs.

- ELM/EPT must be taken as early as possible, but no later than the beginning of May.
- If ELM/EPT scores are not on file, SAT/ACT/EAP scores will be used to predetermine if student needs Early Start until ELM and EPT scores are received.
- CSUEB will communicate with students by late May of their expected ESP participation, requirements and remediation options available, by email and on the CSUEB Smart Page.
