Stamps & Lamps, Toys & Tins:

The Things We Collect & Why We Collect Them

Why are people driven to collect?
For millennia people and animals have accumulated things — from the common to the extraordinary.

We invite you to discover the world of collectors and their intriguing stories as you explore the many reasons for collecting.
This exhibition will delight you with a variety of collections from our own Cal State East Bay community.

Also, held over from 2010: Trails to Rails: Building the Transcontinental Railroad
