4. Service

4.1 The server may serve from any position behind the end line.

4.2 Let Serve: A serve that hits the net and goes over. Play shall continue if a served ball hits the net and goes over.

4.3 If the ball is served before the referee's whistle, a re-serve shall be given. Only one re-serve is allowed before a point is awarded to the opposing team and a side-out. The following are service faults:

1. Ball does not pass over the net.

2. Ball touches teammate or any other object before crossing the net.

3. Ball lands out-of-bounds.

4. Ball touches wall or ceiling.

4.4 A player has five (5) seconds to serve the ball.

4.5 If a team serves out of order, their opponent shall receive a point and the serve. The team in violation will lose serve and any points scored while serving out of order. The team at fault must take correct positions.

4.6 Any attempt to screen the receiving team from seeing the trajectory of the serve is a point to the receiving team.

4.7 At the time the ball is contacted during the serve, the players on the court must be in proper order.

4.8 The player receiving a served ball may not hit or block a serve above the height of the net.

4.9 A setting action which results in a double contact is permitted during a served ball.

5. Playing the Game

5.1 Each team is allowed three (3) consecutive contacts of the ball in order to return it.

5.2 A double contact is allowed on every first ball and the contact is made with only one attempt.

5.3 The ball may be hit with any part of the body above the waist.

5.4 Touching a ball above the height of the net in an attempt to block does not count as one of the three hits allowed; the same player may make the first contact during that play.

5.5 An illegal hit occurs when the ball visibly comes to rest or has prolonged contact with a player. This is a judgment call by the official and cannot be questioned. Holding, catching, throwing, lifting, and pushing are illegal hits because of prolonged contact with the ball.

5.6 Double hit: A double hit occurs when a player illegally contacts the ball twice in succession or the ball rebounds from one part of the body to another on a single attempt to play the ball.

5.7 If, after simultaneous contact by opponents, the ball falls out-of-bounds, the team on the same side shall be deemed as having caused it.

5.8 When two players of the same team make contact with the ball simultaneously, it is considered one contact and either player may make the next contact.

5.9 A player is not allowed to attack the ball on the opponent's side of the net.

5.10 No player shall assist a teammate by holding him/her while they are playing the ball. It is legal to hold a player not playing the ball in order to prevent a fault.

5.11 A back row player may not cause a ball, which is completely above the height of the net to cross over to the opponent's side unless he/she is either on the ground completely behind the attack line (3 meter line) or is in the air, having jumped from behind the attack line. If the player touches any part of the line it is a violation.

5.12 A ball must break the plane of the net before an opponent may contact it or if no play by the attacking team can be made.

6. Blocking

6.1 A block is considered legal when a player's hand is above the height of the net and touches or deflects the ball while it is above the height of the net. A player's hand below the height of the net is not considered a block but is considered the first hit and the team has 2 remaining hits left.

6.2 Blocking may be legally accomplished only by players who are in the front row at the time of service. Back row players may not participate in a single block or team block. (A team block is when two or more players are blocking simultaneously).

6.3 The team that participated in a block shall have three additional contacts after the block.

6.4 Any player participating in a block shall have the right to make the next contact, with such contact counting as the first team hit.

6.5 Multiple contacts of the ball during a block shall be considered a single contact, even though the ball may make multiple (2 or more) contacts with one or more players of the block.

6.6 Blocking a serve is prohibited.

6.7 It is legal to block a ball on the opponent's side of the provided, in the opinion of the official, the trajectory of the ball would have caused it to break the plane of the net.

6.8 A blocked ball is considered to have crossed the net.

7. Play at the Net

7.1 If a player's action causes him/her to contact the net during play, accidental or not, with any part of body or clothes, that player shall be charged with a fault.

7.2 If the ball is driven into the net with such force that it causes the net to contact a player, such contact shall not be considered a fault.

7.3 If opponents contact the net simultaneously, it shall constitute a double fault and a replay shall be awarded.

7.4 If a player accidentally contacts any part of the net supports, such contact should not be counted as a fault provided that it has no effect on sequence of play. Intentional contact or grabbing of such objects shall be penalized as a fault.

7.5 Crossing over the center line and contacting the opponent's playing area with any part of the body is a fault. The whole foot must be completely over the centerline in order to be a violation.

7.6 If the ball, in any way, makes contact with the antenna, it is deemed out of play. If the ball sails outside the antenna, it is also out.

8. Violations

8.1 A violation will result in a point.

8.2. A violation shall be declared when:

1. the ball touches the floor
2. the ball is held, thrown, or pushed
3. a team has played the ball more than three (3) times consecutively or a player touches the ball twice consecutively

9.2 The official score will be kept by the scorekeeper. In the event of a discrepancy, the running score kept on the score sheet will be considered the official score, and all rotation information recorded on the score sheet will be considered the official information.

10. CoRec Modifications

10.1 A regulation team consists of 3 males and 3 females.

10.2 A female must hit the ball at least once if the ball is contacted two or more times before being returned over the net. Failure to do so will result in either a point or a side-out.

10.3 Men and women must alternate positions.

10.4 Men may both block shots and attack the net when permitted by rule.

11. Cancellations and Delays
